Air Vice-Marshal Reid CB QHP presents

A view from on high – the Defence Medical Services today, and a glimpse over the horizon

Air Vice-Marshal Alastair Reid CB QHP graduated from the University of Glasgow in 1983, then trained in general practice and joined the RAF as a direct entrant in 1993, before specialising in Occupational Medicine. He has served in multiple locations, not least in Cyprus from June 2010 as Commander Medical, British Forces Cyprus and Commanding Officer of The Princess Mary's Hospital, RAF Akrotiri. In 2012 he moved to RAF Henlow before being promoted into the 1* post of Air Officer Medical Operations and Commandant of the RAF Centre of Aviation Medicine. In 2016, he was posted to DMS Whittington as Head of Med Policy and Information Systems before being promoted into the 2* position of Defence Medical Director in 2018. In July 2019 he was appointed as the Surgeon General. He has previously held the position of Defence Consultant Adviser in Occupational Medicine and was appointed as a Queen's Honorary Physician in Apr 2015.
